A Great Place to Meet...and More

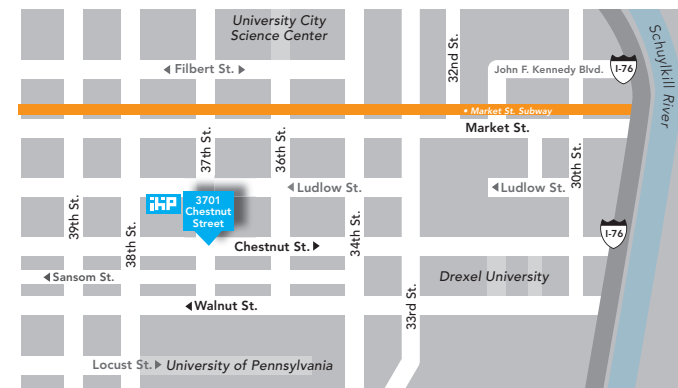

International House Philadelphia is a multicultural residential center, a source of distinctive programming, and the embodiment of an ideal. Our critical three-fold mission: to maintain a diverse and welcoming community for scholars from around the world, while introducing them to the American experience; to broaden the horizons of its residents and the larger community through high quality international arts and humanities programs; and to encourage cooperation and respect among the peoples of all nations.

A Unique Location for Your Next Event or Meeting

The Conference Center @ International House Philadelphia offers a facility that includes a wide range of meeting room sizes to perfectly meet the needs of any sized group. In addition to a 350-seat theater, The Conference Center has a variety of rooms that are ideal for meetings, seminars, lectures, workshops, classes, training sessions and retreats. They are also available for breakout workshops for large conferences held in the theater.

The Conference Center has a distinct international feel. Our rates are reasonably suited for non-profits, and we will customize a room to accommodate the specific needs of your event. On-site catering is also available.

The Ibrahim Theater

The Ibrahim Theater is a 350-seat, fully-equipped, multi-purpose theater facility. Featuring a state-of-the-art concert sound-system, we can accommodate a variety of music presentations from small acoustic ensembles to fully amplified 10+ piece bands. The Ibrahim Theater is ideal for film and video screenings, with the capability to project 16mm and 35mm film as well as most video formats including DigiBeta, BetaSP, DVD and miniDV. Additional devices can be incorporated into our system. There is also access from the stage, which is perfect for PowerPoint lectures and other visual presentations. Our lighting system is equipped with a digital lighting board. With a knowledgeable staff able to assist you, we can provide a complete package for most events.

NOTE: The theater and conference rooms are not available for social events such as parties, banquets, fashion shows, etc.

South America Room

At almost 2,000 square feet, with a capacity of up to 150, South America is our most versatile space with a great view and an outdoor balcony. It is ideal for large seminars and classes, as well as receptions.

Australia Lounge

A uniquely designed atrium space, the Australia Lounge is an attractive setting for receptions, breakfasts, and as a breakout space for conferences, accommodating up to 100 for stand-up events and 50 for a seated gathering or meeting.

Europe, Asia, Africa and North America Rooms

These rooms, which accommodate 10 to 60 people, are ideal for small board meetings, seminars, retreats, classes and conference breakout space. The Asia and Africa Rooms can be combined to form a larger meeting space.
